that reform is precisely the thing which the TRIBUTES PAID TO GRANT. Radical hates. If you mend it you cannot end it. There is, on this point, a significant passage in Mr. Bryce's "American Commonwealth." quote from memory, but the substance is that while belated political philosophers in England are complaining that the House of Lords has too much power, the real criticism is that it has not Would Mr. Bryce wish that passage unwritten? When he penned such words he clearly did not expect to be a party to an agitation for overthrowing the Second Chamber. None of the Ministers has a plan. The most extreme Radicals have, indeed, modified their attitude. They to not now demand the abolition of the House Lords. They only demand what they call the sholition of the veto. By the word veto they mean the constitutional right of a co-ordinate wanch of the Legislature to amend or reject. ath certain exceptions, bills passed by the other wanch of the Legislature. The cry "Down with tords" has died away. It is almost a pity, gras a good mouth-filling cry; just the kind phrase which the stump orator likes, and which his least educated audiences like. It saves the necessity of thinking, on either side. It had, no doubt, one disadvantage. If the orator were asked what he was going to put in the place of the Lords when he had once got them down, he would have had no answer ready. Or even if he were asked, How do you propose to get them down? he would have been perplexed. Such questions might be asked in Scotland if not

But, as I was saying, now and then comes Radical who has views of his own. Sir James Kitson, M. P., is such a Radical. Sir James is, I believe, a mighty man in the caucus, and in the local or perhaps central councils of the party. In statesmanship his reputation is yet to make. He has a cheerful readiness to express opinions on difficult subjects which makes him interesting and at times entertaining. He is useful at all times. The type of politician who thinks aloud is apt to impart to the public a kind of knowledge which the more expert manager keeps to himself. He shows the processes. The other waits for results. Sir James Kitson suggests that the question of the House of Lords should be dealt with in the same way in which Mr. Gladstone dealt with the abolition of purchase in the army; by Royal Warrant. The notion of destroying a Legislative Chamber by an act of the Crown may not seem a very democratic notion, but it is Sir James Kitson's contribution to the subject. Republicans may be excused if they do not think the situation would be much improved by such an expedient, or that the cause of free government would gain by strengthening the authority of the Sovereign. He offers another suggestion almost equally convincing and statesmanlike. Somebody, in his careful language, is to forget to issue sommonses to the Peers to attend Parliament, and then the House of Commons will, of its own motion and by its own act, send up bills to the Crown for its approval. Sir James Kitson's mind has a vast sweep, so vast that legal and constitutional obligations seem not to be binding on him, or not even to attract his attention. But he i a very good example of the Radical who would pull down without stopping to think how he shall rebuild, and to whom, for an end which he thinks righteous, all means are G. W. S. righteous.

in England.

TO AID A WORTHY INSTITUTION.

TWO PERFORMANCES TO BE GIVEN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE TRAINING

SCHOOL FOR NURSES.

The Strollers have finally consented to give a matinee on Tuesday, May 1, and an evening performance on Thursday, May 3, at the Berkeley Lyceum for the benefit of the Training School for Nurses connected with the Post-Graduate Hospital. The Training School makes an urgent appeal for support in the excellent work which it accomplishes the fitting of young women for laudable and useful self-support. Surely, to-day, the value of the useful self-support. Surely, to-day, the value of the services of a trained nurse is everywhere recognized. This school supplies the Roosevelt and Post-Graduate hospita's and the Manhattan Eye and Ear Infirmary with their full complement of aurses. In addition, a number of nurses are sent to cases in private families, and more broadly through the agency of the Du Bois Fund, which provides for the furnishing of nurses to persons of limited means who otherwise would be deprived of proper nursing in time of serious illness. Many interesting cases have been recorded in the last year, and a large debt of gratitude is due the Du Bois Fund. The home and school are at Nos. 151 and 163 East Thirty-sixth-st, and are conducted by a Board of Managers, among whom are the following well-known women. Mrs. Talbot Olyphant, Mrs. Samuel Ropence, Mrs. Miles B. Carpenter, Mrs. Henry W. Cannon, Mrs. Henry Hall, Mrs. George W. Crary, Mrs. Charles S. Day, Dr. S. J. McNutt and Dr. Wrs. Charles S. Day, Dr. S. J. McNutt and Dr. Wrs. Charles S. Day, Dr. S. J. McNutt and Dr. sanagers, among with the same of the same

MISS AMY BAKER'S RECITAL.

Miss Amy Baker will give her annual recital at Sherry's, Fifth-ave, and Thirty-seventh-st., to-mor-Sherry's, Fifth-ave, and Thirty-seventh-st, to-mor-row afternoon, at 3.30 o'clock. Miss Baker is a re-markably entertaining reader and knows how to make her selections so as to interest her audience in the highest degree. Her recitals always attract large audiences, which are made up of the class of people best able to appreciate and to judge such efforts as hers. They are always found to be worthy of all the attention they receive, and fully to reward those who make a point of being present.

TO HELP FRENCH CHARITIES. A "spring festival" will be given on Sunday evening at the Lenox Lyceum, under the auspices of the orchestra of the French Musical Club. Among the people who will appear are Adrienne Larive, who will sing Parisian songs, and Jacques Inaud, from Kotter & Bual's, Miles, Coscheil and Marx, dancers, A. Guillé, tenor; Geliske, and Mire, Louisa Tersi, soprano. The orchestra will be reinforced by inenda of the society, and will be heard in several selections, including the overture to "William Tell." A ball will be given after the concert. The profits are for the benefit of the society, but a certain proportion of them is destined for the French charilies of the city.

FRANK HATTON IMPROVED.

Washington, April 25.—Frank Hatton, Editor of The Washington Post," who was stricken with paralysis on Tuesday, had a comfortable night, and to-day the physicians pronounced their patient confiderably improved and on the road to recovery.

Mr. Hatton's physicians to-night report a decided change for the better. He passed a comfortable day, and his symptoms are altogether favorable.

"INDUSTRIAL ARMIES" AS LAWBREAKERS.

TREAT THEM LIKE OTHER OFFENDERS. From The Troy Times.

They are developing into common tramps and the residence of the common tramps and similars. There is but one way to deal with them that they break the laws. Treat them like other maders and put them in prison. That would soon way the "army."

CNCLE SAM NOT TO BE TRIFLED WITH.

The The Boston Journal.

In seigling a train on a road in charge of receivers a seigling a train on a road in charge of receivers the seigling a train on a road in charge of receivers have the conflict with Uncle Sam. It will probably wish that it hadn't.

ROMPT SUPPRESSION FOR LAWLESENESS. From The Springfield Republican.

As long as the Coxey bands proceed within the bace of the State they will be let alone by the washington authorities and by the Federal authorities in charge of bankrupt rallroads. But the moment they go beyond that and assail property and personal rights, they are likely to be summarily appreciated.

THE BEST MOVE TO MAKE.

THE BEST MOVE TO MAKE.

From The Pittsburg Dispatch.

While the facts of the last stampede of frenzled Westerners will not create much surprise in view of the tolerance that has been shown similar organizations in various Sintes west of the Mississippi River, the fact that the Government troops have been ordered out to regulate the wild career of the army will be regarded generally as the best move that could have been made.

SHOULD BE STARVED INTO DISBANDING. From The Portland Oregonian.

Railroad managers have got the right focus on the industrial army business. They say that the men should be starved into disbanding and thus be compelled to go to work, or be prosecuted under the vagrancy laws.

A DIFFERENCE IN THE MEN.

Prom The Chicago Tribune.

Mr. Cleveland is represented as somewhat distract over the Coxey migration. It wouldn't have borded Andrew Jackson a particle.

THE WEST SIDE REPUBLICAN CLUB HAS

A DINNER IN HIS MEMORY. J. EDGAR LEAVCRAFT, CONGRESSMAN QUIGG EX-CONGRESSMAN WISE AND OTHERS

MAKE SPEECHES-A LARGE

ATTENDANCE. The West Side Republican Club held its seventh annual dinner at the Hotel Endicott, No. 101 West Eighty-first-st., last evening in the large clubrooms. There were nearly 150 members and their friends present, and all helped heartily to make it a jolly and enthusiastic affair. The rooms were draped with American flags, and portraits of General Grant. to whose memory the occasion was dedicated, were displayed.

Edgar Leaveraft, president of the club, sat in the centre of the speakers' table. Grouped about him were William H. Bellamy, E. B. Harper, Judge Charles N. Taintor, General T. J. Morgan, the Rev. Dr. A. J. Palmer, Mayor Charles A. Schleren, Congressman Lemuel E. Quigg, ex-Congressman John S. Wise, L. L. Lewis, Cyrus Clark, Lucius M. Stan-ton, Clinton H. Smith, S. S. Packard and Killaen Van Hensyslaer

Among others present were S. P. Carmichael, Captain John McCullagh, Alexander Caldwell, the Rev. G. H. Gregory, E. C. Williams, Henry E. Stevens, Emil Rinks, Oscar Hoffstadt, James A. Punderford, Charles E. Hammond, Ernest R. Lawson, S. H. Randall, A. M. Capen, James King Duffy, George C. Reuwee, Austin M. Slauson, R. H. Thompson, Victor Erbacher, Pierre J. Smith, H. A. Patterson, Ray Totten, Arthur D. Davis, Thomas J. Flagg, M. K. Flagg, Henry D. Norris, Frank H. Platt Nathan, H. Armitige Matthews, C. N. Bovee, fr., Hanford Crawford, Archibald Turner, William M. K. Olcutt, Raymond Babcock, Theodore Wentz, J. Williams, Dayton Corsa, J. C. Milligan, William Leary, the Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, Henry Cole Smith, E. M. Johnson, George S. Dalzell, Eugene H. Conklin, H. C. Conger, W. N. Batchelder, D. A. Anderson, C. C. Marble, Freeman Bloodgood, David C. Link, Dr. J. L. Hiller, John O'Connell and Sam

MAYOR SCHIEREN'S WORDS

Mr. Leaycraft's opening remarks were short. He introduced each of the speakers with a pleasant expression. Mayor Schleren was greeted with applause. He spoke on "The Government of Great Cities," in part as follows:

Cities," in part as follows:

Within the past year a complete revolution has come over the political atmosphere of this country. Many cities still suffering from corrupt political bosses are making strenaous efforts to rid themselves of these rings and to break up all political combinations. The result of recent local elections plainly indicates that the people are thoroughly aroused and determined to elect only housest and independent men to control their municipal affairs. Fublic-spirited men, irrespective of party, est and independent men to control their municipal affairs. Public-spirited men, itrespective of party, find it necessary at times to set aside their party feeling and unite in order to break the influence and power of unscrupulous politicalns. We can only hope to obtain permanent success in governing large cities by eliminating as much as possible party politics from local affairs. Measures for reform in local government are generally successful at elections held in off years, when all interests centre in local issues. Both political parties should institute a much needed reform, and not permit office-holders to retain the active management of their party.

institute a much needed reform, and he perhodical coffice-holders to retain the active management of their party.

Brooklyn is in the advance guard of municipal reform. Other cities are looking toward Brooklyn to solve the problem: Can local good government, based upon sound business principles, be a success? Brooklyn's example, therefore, means a great deal for good government.

The gentlemen who control the various departments in our municipal affairs are anxious to demonstrate by actual results the benefit of good government, and hope to realize the expectations of not only our own people, but those of other communities. Every department of our city government is responsible directly to the Mayor.

In the near future Brooklyn will be called upon to yote on the question of 'To be or not to be' a part of the Greater New-York, but unless the people of New-York City bestir themselves and set aside the one-man power system of Tammany Hall, the people of Brooklyn may be unwilling to exchange their reform government for one which they so thoroughly and most emphatically set uside last year.

Therefore, Republicans and public-spirited men of New-York City must come together and organize all dissatisfied elements. Get up spular eathusiasm for the cause. Enlist all the people, advocate good eithenship, rather than party, appeal to the partiotism and civic pride of the people of New-York city must come together and civic pride of the people of New-York in not lean too much to strict party lines. Select well-known public-spirited men as your candidates, men the people of the partiot length and civic people of the partiol length and civic people of t

How perfectly. Mr. President, the genius of the Republican party is illustrated in the lives of its heroes? To act to assume responsibility, to confront emergency, to go at every problem determined to solve and dispose of it—this is the genius of the Republican party. It detests evasion. It despises compromise. It rejoices in opportunity. Embeavor is its element and opposition its quickening spirit. It is bolicits when overmatched, readiest when most beset, soberest when most successful. It goes directly from one duty done to the next that is to be done. Its mission will end when all construction ends, or when society divides on some other lines than those of action and inaction, when the moving current proceeds from other poles than the positive and the negative.

The Republican party has had many heroes, and they have differed in character as widely as the oak from the chestinat, the outreaching linden from the straight and stalwart pine, but each has been a true expression of the genius of the party. Each has worked out, in his own way, the thoughts and impulses, the hopes and fears, the ambitions and aspirations of that great portion of the people who are content only when they are meeting—lonestly meeting, solving—correctly solving, the problems and the duties of the hour.

It is inspiring to come together on such an anniversary as this and to recall for our encouragement to-day the character and achievements of one of our noblest models. Nor is there any whose mental and moral temperament offers a more useful suggestion to us at this particular time than may be found in the character and achievements of one of our noblest models. Nor is there any whose mental and moral temperament offers a more useful suggestion to us at this particular time than may be found in the character of Grant. For he, above all others, was a man who understood it when he had an opportunity. Consciously or otherwise, he had an opportunity consciously or our opportunity is carries by exercised to previously no heavify, that victory

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY'S SINS.

The Democratic party has profoundly offended the country. So many are its sins, and so generally distributed is the responsibility of them, that no Democratic party is the responsibility of them. crat can afford to point accusingly at another. It is not for Cleveland to denounce Hill, nor for Hill to sneer at Cleveland. It is not for the Democrats in the Administration to berate the Democrats in Congress. It is not for the Free-Traders to wax insneer at Cleveland. It is not for the Democrats in the Administration to berate the Democrats in Congress. It is not for the Free-Traders to wax indignant at the silver men. It is not for the Jeffersonians to assait the Mugwumps. They have all done it. They are all in the boat together, and together they must sink. (Applause.)

For, in serving the function of an opposition, they have yot into the habit of agreeing to anything before election; and now, being for the first time in thirty-three years charged with the full responsibility of government, they find themselves bewildered by the conflicting obligations into which they have entered. Heretofore they could explain everything by saying, "We did not have full power." But on the 4th of March. 1832, that excuse failed them. The House was theirs. Not an uplifted finger stood in their way.

One year has gone by, and what are the public conditions produced by their government? They have got the whole country by the ears. They have done—nothing. Not one question which was open when they took office is settled to-day, and yet the people are everywhere fretted, disgusted, alarmed. Those who voted for them are as vereel as those who voted affect in their platform. It produced they have balked. (Applause.) Gradually they are revealing what the trouble is. They had a definite policy. It was illustrated in their leader. It was clearly defined in their platform. It proclaimed that tariff duties should be levied with no other object in mind that the provision of public revenues, and that to adjust them so as to serve this purpose and at the same time to protect American industry was unconstitutional.

But in acquiring office they asked and received support on other grounds than this. They offered themselves as the organ of unrest. They were willing to mean anything that any one wanted they should mean and if he didn't know what he wanted, they were willing to mean anything that any one wanted they are well off, who don't like the sunshine because it is too warm, nor the s various names, imagines to tend in those levelling directions. They don't dare to do them. They don't dare not to do them. They advance and they retreat. They circle this way and circle that, a plaque to those they threaten and an exasperation to those that cry them on.

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

This is the difference between our party and theirs- we mean what we say: we promise only what we intend to perform, and, commissioned, we go ahead and do it. (Applause.) They mean only a part of what they say, and no group of them can agree about what part it is. (Laughter.) I needn't furnish you a bill of particulars. Look at the tariff record. They propose a plain pian of general destruction, and while it is bound to be general tariff record. They propose a plain plan of general destruction, and while it is bound to be general enough and destructive enough, however it may issue from their wrangle, yet watch them fight, like cats and dogs, each to save the bone that has meat on it for him. Caughter) Take their financial record. They promise to repeal the silver purchasing provision, but after months of delay in assembling together and months more of struggle among themselves, their vote discloses a majority against an unconditional repeal, and the purty which the country put out of power has to come forward to save it from the party which it put in power. And then they pass a bill to coin $5,000,000 of value into $152,000,000 of obligations. It is to the credit of the President that he resists his party in this dishonest legislation, but he leads them into other paths almost as bad.

Mosoning in ponderous platitudes about how the corrupt use of money in elections results in the "capriclous bestowal of favors," he sees his nearest friend barter a high office of honor and trust for cash, and with the whole dirty transaction written down in black and white before him he confirms the bargain and delivers the goods. Steeped in piedges to respect not merely the letter, but the principle of Civil Service reform, posing, indeed, as its guardian angel and dread avenger, he turns over the Diplomatic and treely the letter, but the principle of Civil Service reform, posing, indeed, as its guardian angel and dread avenger, he turns over the Diplomatic and the Postoffice to a gang of spoilsmen whose rapacity is only equalled by their renear unfitness to hold office. With no more appreciation of what this Government stands for in the eyes of the sons of those out of whose glorious aspiration and noble daring it was born, or of what it should stand for in the eyes of all manifind, than might be expected of an Asiatic, he places his intrusted authority at the disposal of a victous and half-savage woman with which to recover a throne that her own whicke

REPUBLICAN OPPORTUNITY. This is the situation from which a part of our opportunity is derived. I say a part, because the Republican opportunity in New-York is unique Republican opportunity in New-York is unique.
The operations of the Democracy at Washington have been proligiously stupid, but in New-York State they have been wicked. Here the people confront not only the danger of being robbed by confront not only the danger of being robbed by victous taxation, swindled by dishonest currency and forced into a suspension of their business by the practically unhindered competition of the products of foreign cheap labor, but they are called upon to deal with a system of State and municipal government which is nothing more nor less than the dayselfer of an experience of a compared by a control of the con called upon to deal with a system of State and municipal government which is nothing more nor less than the despotism of an organized band of criminals. The Government which has existed in Albany, and which now exists in this city, is a government for plander. The men who control is have no other conception of public office than as a means of personal enrichment. The very laws framed by the people to scarre the righteons and orderly transaction of public office than as a means of personal enrichment. The very laws framed by the people to scarre the righteons and orderly transaction of public business—lowed, the baws to protect their homes from the degrading touch of vice any converted by these knaves into mints, out of which they coin money for their own advantage. There is not a law on our statute books saying. Thou shalt not "to which they have not added the provision, "unless you pay us so much money.

They key on the just and the output. The citizen can no tance set a played-out hydrant removed from the front of his house without bribing somebody than he can get a disorderly resort closed across the street. The merchant who wants immunity for the improper use of the shlewalk, the builders who wants to be protected in an improper use of the street, the troperty-owner who wants to get rid of the necessity of putting up fire-excapes, each knows has what he must do to nutify the laws and continues our mandepal offices are filled by a class of men who in senioral have more counds ability to conduct a successful fruit stand. Offices which have the distribution of millions of public money are conducted by persons whom no sensible merchant would employ to fill an associarity and even the crime of murder does not but the way to exalted station. Not who peaterlisk were were the crime of murder does not but the way to exalted station.

But we must do something more than merely make agreeable professions. We may as well admit the fact that the course of the Republican Legis-

MR. WISE'S WITTY REMARKS.

MR. WISE'S WITTY REMARKS.

Ex-Congressman John S. Wise made a witty and opportune speech. He selected for his text the words of Grant: "You may rely upon the Democrats to furnish ample campaign materials whenever they come into office." Mr. Wise said in part. Grant never said a wiser thing than that, and it has never been better illustrated than at the present time. There has been a little over a vear of Democratic rule, and not a single picklec has been redeemed. In place of the repeal of the State bank tax. It National banks have gone into insolvency in place of unprecedented prosperity, the tide of emigration has turned against ust in place of a New Jerusalem for the South, one white man from Virginia has been appointed Minister to Hayth, and an ex-post-facto Confederate has been put in charge of the Interior Department to pass upon the pensions of United States soldiers. The appointment of Supreme Court Judges has degenerated into a fight between two Democratic leaders. Foreign Ministers have been appointed whose active service consisted in trying to convince thinking people that dudes could think, and whose retirement was for the purpose of writing an essay on "The Last of the Knickerbockers."

The other speakers were the Rev. Dr. A. J. Paimer, on "General Grant," and General T. J.

The other speakers were the Rev. Dr. A. J. Palmer, on "General Grant," and General T. J. Morgan, on "Grant's Indian Policy."

THE ORPHEUS SOCIETY CONCERT.

The third private concert for the season of the Orpheus Society took place last night at the Madison Square Garden Concert Hail. The society was assisted by Mile. Bita Elandi, soprano, and Vetor Herbert, violoncellist. Mile. Elandi sang from "La Gloconda," "Springtime of the Heart," by Wickede, "Elegie," by Massenet, with cello obligate, and "Elegie," by Massenet, with cello obligate, and Hiller's "Easter Morring," with the society, Mr. Herbert played Schubert's "Ave Marie," a mazurka by Popper, bis own "Legende," and "Tha, by Yon Voelis, The society sang Schumann's "The Lotos Flower," and "The Minstrels Tourney, "Mynheer Vandunck," by H. R. Elishop, "May Song," by Buente; "Minstrel's Song, hy Adam de la Hale, and Zoellner's "Praise of Music,"

A NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB.

A NEW REPUBLICAN CLUB.

A meeting was held at No. 2,607 First-ave, last evening by a large number of members of the regular Hepublican Organization of the City and County of New-York, in the XNVth Assembly District, of which organization Dr. M. W. Brinkmann is president, James McGarvey and Peter Schultz executive members, and Dr. A. B. Cassart, chairman of the Finance Committee. The object of the meeting was to promote the organization of a permanent Republican club for social and political purposes. The attendance was most enthusiastic. The successful establishment of the club was guaranteed by piedges from over 300 Republicans, most of whom are mechanics, mill-operatives and workingmen in the district.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME | MR. GOULD AND THE VIGILANT.

St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church at Clifton S. I. was yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the scene of the marriage of Miss Faith McNamee. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McNamee, to Bernard Eckhout. The bride, who entered with her father, were a gown of white satis, profusely trimmed with round rose point lace and pearl trimming fastened with a diamond crescent, a gift from Cornelius Vanderbilt. Miss Jessie McNames sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Th bridesmaids were Miss Gertrude Curran, of Utica; Miss Effle Caesar, and Grace Nesbitt, cousins of the bride; Miss Gertrude Williams, Miss Johanna Caesar and Miss Helen Janssen. Mrs. McNamee, the bride's mother, wore a gown of gray motre, trimmed with purple velvet, and a bonnet to match ushers were William M. Crowe and Alfred Wend ushers were William M. Crowe and Affred Wendt, of this city; Frank Frick, jr., Charles G. Stirling, C. M. Stewart, jr., and John Stewart, jr., of Baltimore, in which city the bridegroom, a Scotchman by birth, is engaged in the grain business. The ceremony, which was performed by the rector of the church, the Rev. John Eccleston, assisted by the Rev. Newland May-nard, of this city, was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, on Grymes Hills, Tompkinsville, S. I. Among the guests were Mrs. William H. Vanderbilt, Mrs. W. Seward Webb. Mrs. Joshua Davis, Miss Eloise Davis, J. Edward Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Aquila Rich, Miss Clara Rich. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Outerbridge, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Bonner, Miss Bonner, Miss Emily Vyse, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harper Bonnell, Mr. and Mrs. Francis O. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ogden Fowler, Miss Agnes Lawrence, Miss Julia Robinson, Mrs. H. R. Van Vechten, Randolph St. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walker, Miss Mabel Shaw, Mrs. Herman Caesar and Mr and Mrs. Stephen Brown.

The bridal gifts included several large pieces sent by various members of the Vanderbilt family. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Captain

The marriage of Miss Edna Virginia Piercy. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Piercy, of No. 130 West Eleventh-st., to George S. Groesbeck, of Springfield, Mass., took place last night

MRS. EDNA V. GROESBECK (NEE PIERCY)

Episcopal Church, The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Millard officiated. The bride's dress was of heavy white sain, trimmed in duchess lace, with full tuile veil, caught in place by a diamond sur-burst, a gift of the bridgersom. She carried whom no sensible merchant would employ to fill to 1800 clerkship.

Criminals sit upon the beach to administer justice, and even the crime of murder does not bur the ray to exalted station. Men who reaterlay were suggars to may are millionaires and the desainles against to may are millionaires and the desainles of this imperial interopolis hang on their polluted of this imperial interopolis hang on their polluted of the imperial interopolis hang on their polluted or seatch! Secure in the control of their criminal or restriction, they raise our servants and make them. While there is the control of their criminal or controlled, they raise our servants and make them. of Brooklyn may be unwilling to exchange their reform government for one which they so thoroughly and most emphatically set oxide hast year.

Therefore, Republicans and public-spirited men of New-York City must come together and organize all discatified elements. Get upphe alvocate goes for the cause,

One of the prettiest and gayest of the spring weddings was that of Miss Elise Hurst, a daughter of Francis W. J. Hurst, to ticorge H. Mairs, which was reciebrated at moon yesterlay, in St. Peeter P. Protestant Episcopal Church, at West Chrot P. Protestant Episcopal Church, at West Chrot P. Greek, which the protect of th

TO INSPECT THE NEW GRAMMAR SCHOOL. The school trustees of the Nineteenth Ward have ssued invitations for an inspection of Grammar issued invitations for an inspection of Grammar School No. 6 to-morrow from 19 a. m. to 5 p. m. This is the new school at Madison-ave and Eighty-afth-st. There was a long contest over the principalship of the female department, ending in the unanimous choice by the Board of Education and the trustees of Miss Katherine D. Blake, one of the best known, most popular and accomplished teachers in the public schools.

SAID TO BE GOING ABROAD.

to IT IS EXPECTED THAT THE ATALANTA WILL BE TAKEN OVER AND THAT THE CRACK YACHT WILL BE RACED.

It was said last evening by a friend of George J. Gould that he not only intended to send the Vigilant abroad to race her in foreign waters, but that he would race her himself, taking his big steam yacht the Atalanta across, and doing considerable cruising with her. From what was hinted by the informant, Mr. Gould might be considered as planning a campaign of surprise.
"Mr. Gould," said his friend, "Is not given to taking the public into his confidence, so that it is no wonder that people are totally in the dark as to what he intends to do with the Vigilant. That Mr. Gould is a good deal more of a sportsman than people have any idea of. He has always had a tondness for sports and outdoor life, and you know what pleasure he has taken out of his cabin in the Adirondacks. There is in him, too, a strong love taciturnity is a trait of the Gould character. But of social pleasures. "It was Mr. Gou'd's intention when the Vignant was bought to race her, and to race her abroad, too. You need not be surprised if you see him and his family and several friends going across the water soon, and taking the Atalanta along, too. It would please the American people, I am sure, to Vigilant raced abroad in a thoroughly have the Vigilant raced abroad in a thoroughly representative way—the American way. Mr. Gould would undoubtedly do that, and I know that it would please him greatly to make a fine showing with the crack Vigilant.

"I do not think that many people of the world, outside of his family, realize how extensively and lavishly Mr. and Mrs. Gould have been entertaining at Lakewood and elsewhere. Some of his dimers and entertainments have been given on a really magnificent scale, and he has apparently taken a keen delight in these pleasures. To race the Vigiliant abroad, and at the same time to have the Atalanta there with several people on board, would he a great expense, but he has the money and could easily afford it. His entertainments abroad will be most elaborate and Mr. Gould, if he holds to his present inclination and purpose, will be seen in a new light.

"When does Mr. Gould intend to go over?"

"Well, I am not his keeper. You would better ask him."

ask him."
"When will the Vigilant be sent across the water?"
"I can't tell you the date, but unless I am utterly mistaken, she will not be far behind the Valkyrle."

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. De Peyster, of No. 7 East Forty-second-st., last night gave a dinner party in honor of Miss Edith Cruger Sands and her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Howland Pell, Mr. and Mrs. Maturin L. Delafield, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rhinelander, Miss Neeser, Miss Stuyvesant, Miss Draper, Miss Ellen Van Buren Morris, John G. Neeser, John Beekman and Edward Livingston.

The Westchester coach Tempest left the Hotel Brunswick yesterday morning with a large party, guests of E. N. Taller. In the party were General fiancée, T. J. Oakley Rhinelander. Their other Brunswick yesterday morning with a large party, guests of E. N. Taller. In the party were General and Mrs. Henry L. Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Kernochan, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Welles, Mrs. Robert, R. Livingston, Miss Cameron, Miss Churchill, E. De Peyster Livingston and G. Clarkson, Mrs. Almon Goodwin gave a musicale on Wednesday afternoon, at which Miss Catherine Howland played selections from Lisz; and Greig, Mrs. Douglas Stewari, contraito, was also heard several times, Miss H. M. McDowell sang her St. Nicholassongs, the words of which are by Mary Mapes Dodge.

Dodge.

The regular afternoon tea of the Woman's University Club. No. 23 West Forty-fourth-st., will take place to-morrow. It is expected that Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge and Mrs. C. A. Runkle will be

MELBA AS LUCIA.

Every time "Lucia" is sung the empty seats in the Metropolitan Opera House testify eloquently to the fact that the musical public do not care to listen to an evening of Donizetti. Last night was no exception to the rule, although Melba sang the title rôle. She was by no means in brilliant voice, but really sang her florid music better than on the night of her debut. She was again inclined to sharpness, and in the sextet it was noticeable to a degree. Yet she can hardly be blamed, as her associates were far from satisfactory. She did her usual finished work in the mad scene. Vignas was a robust Edgardo and, of course, forced his voice, The whole opera was inexpressibly tiresome. Signor Mancine conducted, To-night are promised acts from "Romee," "Carmen," "Adda, "Werther" and "Hamlet." by the full force of the company. It will be the closing night of the senson. o exception to the rule, although Melba sang the

CORNELL ALUMNI DINE IN ALBANY.

Albany, April 26 (Special). Forty followers of the carnellan and white marched into the big oak dining-room of the Fort Orange Club at 7 o'clock to-night to partake of the first annual banquet of the recently formed Cornell University Alumni Association of Eastern New-York. Charles S. Francis, of "The Troy Times," a trustee of the university, presided. Seated with him at the guest Sheehan, and George R. Malby, Speaker of the House, ex-afficio trustees of the university; Presi-dent Jucob Gould Schurman, Judge Francis M.

dent Jucob Gould Schurman, Judge Francis M. Finch, of the Court of Appeals, Professor Charles A. Collin, of the Law School, Professor Waterman, A. T. Fiewett, of the faculty, Walter C. Kerr, of New-York, a trustee of the university, and Goodwin Brown, Commissioner in Lanacy.

The tousts were as follows: "The State of New-York," Governor Flower, "The State Senate," Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan, "Early Days of the University," President Schurman, "The State Senate," Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan, "Early Days of the University," Judge Flinch, "Guir Association, Goodwin Brown, "The Board of Trustees," Walter C. Kerr, "The Assembly," Speaker Malby, "The Faculty," Professor Hewett, "The Ladies," Professor Collin, "Boating at Cornell," Frederick W. Kelley, member of the crews of '90, '91 and '92, "Athletics at Cornell," Anthony P. Finder, and "The Executive Committee," Captain Albert J. Wing.

JOCKEY CLUB APPOINTMENTS.

a position to know the thin appears the Jockey Club had decided to reappoint the three indges who served hast year—Colonel Simmons, Victor Smith and Charence McDowell. It was further said that James Rowe would continue to be the starter, that C. Fitzgeraid would be clerk of the scales and John Hunter would be chairman of the Board of Stewards.

MRS. TREVOR'S GIFT TO A HOSPITAL.

Mrs. John H. Trever, widow of John H. Trever Mrs. John R. Trevor, willow of John B. Trevor, of the banking house of Coigate & Trevor, this city, has given $40,000 to endow the J. B. Trevor. Ward of the Riverside Hospital, Yonkers, This is in addition to a gift to the hospital of $13,000, made a few months ago. The hospital stands in Ashburton-ave. It was erected at a cost of $13,000 by W. W. Cochran, president of the Smith Carpet Company, and son-in-law of the late A. B. Smith. Mrs. Trevor's son last year presented to the Baptist congregation a parsonage costing $150,000.

 MARKIED.

CROWELL-CLARK-On Thursday, April 26, at the residence of the bride's brather, by the Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D. D., Mary S., daughter of the late Thomas Clark, of Brooklyn, to Charles E. Crowell.

PLAGLER-LAMONT-On Weinesday, April 25, at the Madison Avenue Baptist Church, by the Rev. Thomas Armitage, D.D., and the Eev. W. H. P. Faunce, Annie Louise, daughter of the late Charles A. Lamont, to Harry Harkness Plasier.

HAMMANN-ADAMS-On Thursday evening. April 26, at the University Flace Church, by the Rev. George Alexander, D. D., Elizabeth Adams to Edward Hammann.

PETER-WHLIAMS-On Wednesday, April 25, 1894, by the Rev. Dr. G. R. Houghton, Anna Wright, daughter of the late Laurence Williams, to Armistead Peter, 35., of Washington, D. G.

MARRIED.

SPENCER-DURBIN-On Wednesday, April 25, 1894, the First Congregational Church, Montclair, N. J., the Rev. Amory H. Bradford, D. D. Frances Margar daughter of Alexander C. Durbin, esq., of Montclair, Paul Spencer, of Brooklyn.

Notices of marriages must be indorsed with BLODGETT.—Wednesday, April 24, at the residence of her son-in-law, Rev. Dr. Samuel H. Virgin, Almira, wife of Luther Blodgett, in ner Soth year.

Funeral services and interment at Mount Auburn, Mass.
COZZENS—On Wednesday April 25, at Croton Falls,
N. Y. Antoinette, wife of Edward C. Cozzens and daughter of the late Robert W. Kelley.
Funeral services will be held at St. Andrew's Church, Brewsters, N. Y., on Saturday, April 28, at 1 o'clock.
Special car will be attached to train leaving Grand Central Depot, at 10:39, returning at 2:50 p. m.
DUER—On Wednesday, April 25, at his residence, New-Hepot, at 10:39, returning at 2:50 p. m.

IUER-On Wednesday, April 25, at his residence, New-Brighten, Staten Island, Morris Robinson, oldest son of the late George Wickham Duer.

Friends and relatives are respectfully invited to attend the funeral from Christ Church, New-Brighton, on Friday afternoon, at 4:15 o'clock at 10:30 a. m.

POSDICK-On April 25, 1894, C. Baldwin Fosdick, son of Charles B and Mary E. Fosdick,
Funeral services at the residence of his father, 31 West
36th-st., on Saturday, April 28, at 1 o'clock.

36th-st., on Saturday, April 28, at 1 o'clock.
GARDNER-On Thursday, April 26, 1894, Margaret Clinton, widow of Jas. Gardner.
Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at her late residence. No. 500 Fulton-st., Union Hill, N. J., on Saturday, the 28th inst., at 2 p. m.
GRIDLEY-At Mount Vernon, N. Y., April 25, 1894, Mrs., Cornelia E. Gridley.
Funeral services at residence of her son-in-law, W. B., Lonns, 122 Cottage-ave., Mount Vernon, on Friday, April 27, at 4 o'clock.
Interment at Newburg, N. Y.
HALSEY-On Wednesday, April 25, 1894, Harrief Elizabeth

Interment at Newburg, N. Y.

HALSEY-On Wednesday, April 25, 1894, Harrief Elizabeth
Bolles, wife of John J. Halsey.
Funeral services at her late residence, No. 1,000 Boulevard, Astoria, L. L., on Friday, 27th inst., at 11 o'clock a, m.
Interment at convenience of family.
HOLMES-On Wednesday, April 25, of pneumonia, at HOLMES-On Wednesday, April 25, of pneumonia, at HOLMES-On Wednesday, April 25, of pneumonia, at HOLMES-On Wednesday, April 25, of pneumonia, in the 33d year of his age.
Funeral private, on Saturday, at 11:30 o'clock, from 35
Summer-st.
HUTCHINSON On the 24th inst. Samuel, Hutchinson.

HUTCHINSON-On the 24th inst., Samuel Hutchinson, aged 55 years.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral Relatives and friends are invited to attend the funeral services at his late residence. No. 521 West 23d-st., on Thursday evening, April 25, at 8 o'clock. Services will be conducted by fev. Dr. John Hall. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery, at 12 noon, Friday, April 27.

KEYS-At her residence, 472 Orange-st., New-Haven, Conn., April 25, of meningitis, Josephine G., widow of Charles G. Keys and daughter of the late George W. Goodstil. Goodstif.
Funeral services Friday, April 27, from the residence of Mrs. Frederick Ives, No. 474 Orange st., New-Haven, at 2 p. m.

at 2 p. m.

KIMBER-In Brooklyn, on Thursday, April 26, in the Töth year of her age, Anna, daughter of the late Joshua and Rachel J. Kimber, of Flushing, Long Island, Funeral services at the residence of her brother, George
D. Kimber, 128 Fert Greene Place, Brooklyn, on Saturday afternoon, April 28, at 3 o clock.
Interment at the convenience of the family.

MURPHY—At Paris, France, April 29, 1894. Eugene Law-rence Murphy, eddest son of the late Daniel T. and Anna L. Murphy.

ROBINSON At 339 West 57th-st., on the evening of April 20, of pneumonia. Miss Jennie H., sister of James A. and George H. Robinson. Funeral at Wakefield, R. L., on Saturday, at 12 o'clock. EUSE-In Newton, N. J., April 29, 1894, Andrew W. Rose, aged 75 years. SALTER-At her residence, No. 167 Lexington-ave. April 29, 1894. Ann Scabury Salter, widow of Albert Salter. Notice of funeral hereafter.

Notice of funcial hereafter.

SNYDER-On Thursday, April 28, in his 12th year, Samuel Franklin Enes, youngest son of Edward L. and Mississippi Snyder.

Notice of funcial hereafter.

VANDERBILT—At Flatbush, L. L., on Thursday, April 26, 1894, Elizabeth G., Lott Vanderbilt

Funeral services at her late residence, Flatbush-ave., Flatbush, on Saturday, April 28 inst., at 3.9, m. bush, on Saturday, April 28 inst., at 3 p. m.

VAN RENSSELAER—At Colorado Springs, suddenly, on April 22. George Griswold Van Rensselaer, only son of M. G. and the late Schuyler Van Rensselaer.

Funeral services at the University Place Church, 10th-st., Friday, April 27, at 10:50 a. m.

WESSON—In the 64th year of his age, at his home, No. 63 Scotland at. Orange, N. J., on Thursday, April 26, 1804, Elijah Burbank Wesson, eldest son of the late bavid Wesson.

Control Wessell.
Control services at 2 p. m., at Grace Church, Orange, co Saturday, April 28. Saturday, April 28. Interment private. Boston papers please copy.

Special Notices.

A .- By the Fifth Avenue Auction Rooms,

WM. B. NORMAN, Auctioneer, IMMENSE SALE BY AUCTION. THIS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

ANTIQUE FURNITURE,

large quantity collected from the plantations of oid HANDSOME MODERN FURNITURE manufacturers,

Diamond Cut Glass, European Porcelains, Carpets, Curtains and Draperies, SUPERB STEINWAY UPRIGHT PIANO, MADE
ESPECIALLY TO ORDER, COSTING $1,400.
A COLLECTION OF
ANTIQUE WATCHES, RINGS, PINS,
MINIATURES, ETO,
Swiss Music Box, East Indian Arms, Plaques, &c. Colored Engravings by Bartolozal and Angelica Kauffman, Ancient and Modern Paintings, Tiger, Leopard, Bear and Llama Robes, &c. &c.

A .- Fifth Avenue Art Galleries, 366 Fifth Avenue, near 31th St., N. Y.

400 BEAUTIFUL CHINESE ART OBJECTS,
to be sold without reserve Thursday and Friday, May 31 and 4th, at 3 o'clock P. M.
FINAL SALE of the season, including a consignment per steamship "Empress of India."
OLD CHINESE

FREE VIEW DAY AND NIGHT.

PORCELAIN.

Remarkable Bine and White, Beautiful Single Color, and Decorated Vases.

Exonusive.

Decorated Vasses.

Exquisite cabinet specimens in Jade, Agate, and Metal.

ORTGIES & CO.,

Managers.

Auctioneer.

Instruction for Epileptics.

A delightful home, careful and judicious instruction, combined with the most approved system of treatment, under a physician of long experience in this disease. Number limited to six. Circulars and reference from Dr. Will. IAMSON, New-London, Conn.

A.—A.—Benj, Franklin's Detective Agency,
280 Broadway, N. Y.; Broad and Chestnut sts., Philadelphia. Expert service; popular rates.

"Johannis"

Is renowned not only for the purity of the water itself, but also for the purity of its own natural gas.

is in addition to a Fill. To the hospital startis in matter town. It is a creeted at a cost of $150.00 in Active W. W. Cochran, president of the Smith Carpet Company, and sond-alway of the late A. B. Smith Carpet Company, and sond-alway of the late A. B. Smith Carpet Company, and sond-alway of the late A. B. Smith Carpet Company, and sond-alway of the same and the sa Religions Notices.

"AMUSEMENTS OF THE CITY" is the subject of A. C. DIXON'S address at Niblo's Garden to-day at noon. Free. Tenth week of Evangelistic Campaign.
This afternoon, at 3.30, in Metropolitan Hall, opposite Macy's, 14th-st., short song service, followed by addresses by GEO. C. NEEDHAM and FERD. SCHIVEREA.